for updated information
on the Summer School

OBJECTIVE

The primary objective of the School is to explore the use of cinema as an instrument for enhancing human rights awareness.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The School seeks to involve human rights practitioners, film makers and producers, and human rights and film students.

PROGRAMME

The School has three interwoven components:

- a programme of interactive teaching;
- attendance of screenings of human rights related films at the 2008 Venice Film Festival and meetings and discussions with filmmakers and representatives of the cinema world present at the festival;
- an individual essay or project.
